

Camper Covenant with the Christian Church in Tennessee

I have read and agree to the following covenant . . .

- I will be respectful to all persons and the camp environment at all times.
- I covenant to enjoy camp as an opportunity to come to know God through nature and through other people. I will participate in all camp activities so I can get the most out of camp.
- I understand that I may be sent home for behaving consistently in a way that does not reflect Christian love and grace.
- I understand that food should not be brought to camp.
- Radios, boom boxes, and, cell phones, are disruptive to the camp community. I will not bring them to camp. I may bring personal electronics (iPods, MP3 Players, etc . . .) however, I am responsible for them and will only use them with earphones (at rest and sleep time) with director's permission.
- I will not damage camp property and will be held financially responsible for any repairs needed as a result of my actions.
- I understand that possession of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, fireworks, or weaponry of any sort (knives, firearms, etc) while at camp is prohibited and I will be sent home if these items are found in my possession.
- I will not sneak out after I am to be in my room. Doing so will result in a one-year suspension from all camp activities. I will be sent home.
